About-demo-account.com as an international intermediary

About-demo-account.com serves as an information resource facilitating interactions between users (hereinafter referred to as "Users") and Exness (hereinafter referred to as "Broker") listed on this website. This global portal aims to simplify the demo account selection process for a global audience, thereby enhancing the quality of service by providing reliable and detailed information about the broker's demo accounts.

Commitment to Zero Costs

About-demo-account.com refrains from charging fees to users who choose to open an Exness demo account offered on the platform. This commitment underscores the website's commitment to creating a transparent and fair environment for all participants.

No Fees for Practice Accounts

Users should understand that using a broker's practice account does not imply any financial interaction between the user and the broker. All practice trading activities are conducted on the virtual demo account. Funds in a virtual account are not real money. About-demo-account.com maintains its role as an information resource, not a financial intermediary.

Profile Creation Prohibition

About-demo-account.com strictly prohibits users from creating any profiles on the website. This policy was implemented to maintain the website's primary purpose as a source of information, avoiding direct financial interactions with users and thereby prioritizing content quality.

Privacy Commitment

About-demo-account.com is unconditionally committed to protecting user information, ensuring complete confidentiality and promising not to disclose any collected data to third parties. This commitment is reinforced by a comprehensive Privacy Policy, available on the website, which guarantees the security of user data.

Ensuring Accuracy of Information

While About-demo-account.com strives to provide users with accurate and up-to-date information, it acknowledges the possibility of discrepancies or inaccuracies in the content available on its website or on linked third-party sites. However, the website makes every effort to carefully check and correct the information to ensure maximum accuracy.

Disclaimer of Liability for Financial Losses

About-demo-account.com expressly disclaims liability for any potential losses incurred by users as a result of using the information resources provided by the website. Users are advised to use such information with caution and fully understand the risks involved.

Intellectual Property Rights

All content displayed on About-demo-account.com, including but not limited to text, graphics, and other materials, remains the exclusive property of the website. Users are strongly reminded that any reproduction, distribution, or use of the website's content without the express permission of About-demo-account.com is strictly prohibited.

User Access and Conduct Regulation

About-demo-account.com reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to restrict or terminate user access to the platform in the event of unauthorized access to information, spamming, rude interactions with staff, or any behavior that disrupts the orderly operation of the website. This policy is intended to maintain a respectful, safe, and effective environment for all users.

Detailed information about the broker's legal documents can be found on the broker's official website.
